

INTRODUCING THE ALL-NEW MERCER BENEFITS U

As part of Mercer's commitment to providing employees with an engaging benefits experience and education that drives positive actions today to make a better tomorrow, we are excited to introduce a completely refreshed release of our award-winning online education resource, Mercer Benefits U.

Our latest research from Mercer's 2015 Inside Employees' Minds Survey shows that employees' health, wealth and career are more interconnected than ever. The lines between financial, physical, emotional and professional wellness have blurred, as employees worry about the affordability of health care in the future, lose sleep over their monthly expenses and feel discouraged about unmet career aspirations.

A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO EMPLOYEE EDUCATION

Mercer Benefits U provides the holistic education today's employees need to take control of their current and future well-being. This innovative, university-themed website represents the very latest in online user interface trends, offering a personalized, interactive experience that helps visitors quickly gain valuable knowledge in a fun, dynamic learning environment.

DRIVING ACCOUNTABILITY AND POSITIVE ACTIONS

With hands-on education that underscores the importance of taking greater personal responsibility for one's own health, wealth and career, Mercer Benefits U empowers employees to become confident managers of their benefits and their futures.

LEARN MORE

If you would like more information about Mercer Benefits U, including a full site demonstration, please contact your Relationship Manager or your local Communications Consultant.

COMING THIS WAY

The new Mercer Benefits U educational website will be available on Mercer's participant websites in May.

For a tour of the sample site, which includes a limited selection of educational material, visit www.mercerbenefitsu.com. To learn more, watch a promotional video and download the product sheet.

